IX. Using MLA format, provide the appropriate documentation (in-text citation) at the end of the following passages: From Judith Jacobsen's article in Worldwatch Paper, page 5, you create the following summary:

Bringing population growth in balance with resources has been on the world's agenda for many decades (Jacobsen 5).

X. From George Forell and William Lazareth's book Population Perils, pages 42 through 43, you quote the following (watch where you put the quote marks!):

“If, as many population experts assert, decreasing population growth will increase affluence, then decreasing population growth will increase environmental deterioration” (Forell and Lazareth 43-43).

XI. You quote Eliot Butler from page 58 of his book Television and Children. This is one of two sources by Butler that are listed on your works cited page (again, watch the quote marks!):

Butler points out that, “the purpose was to test their knowledge of discrimination between ads and programs. Sixty-eight percent of pre-schoolers could not even verbalize what a commercial was” (“Television and Children” 58).

XII. From page 82 of an article by Sharon Bagley, Robert Beamon, Eva Brimley, and Hal Collins, you paraphrase the following information:

The contradiction between these ideas presented may never be resolved, due to the fact that dream research is difficult to conduct and results are often sketchy (Bagley et al. 82).

XIII. You quote from General Ulysses S. Grant’s letter to General Robert E. Lee, which is found on page 377 of Geoffrey C. Ward’s book The Civil War (again, watch the quote marks!):

In a private letter addressed to Lee, Grant warned that: the result of the last week must convince you of the hopelessness of further resistance. I [. . .] regard it as my duty to shift from myself the responsibility of any further effusion of blood, by asking of you the surrender of that portion of the Confederate States Army known as the Army of Northern Virginia.
